CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

QUICK THINKER – I have a tremendously flexible mind, and I am able to shift from idea to idea without effort, drawing on my accumulated knowledge to prove my point, or my opponents', as I see fit.

EXCELLENT BRAINSTORMER – Nothing is quite as enjoyable to me as analyzing problems from every angle to find the best solutions. Combining my knowledge and originality to splay out every aspect of the subject at hand, rejecting without remorse options that don't work and presenting ever more possibilities, I am irreplaceable in brainstorming sessions.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

BREAKING THE RULES -
As I see it, most people are too ready to do as they're told and blindly conform to social norms, pressures, and standards. I enjoy the mental exercise of questioning the prevailing mode of thought, and I take a certain pleasure in uncovering the value of underdogs and outliers. My active mind can't help but rethink the things that everyone else takes for granted and push them in clever new directions.

IDEALS

I will bring terrible wrath down on the Orcs and Goblins who destroyed my homeland.

BONDS

ARGUMENTATIVE – If there's anything I enjoy, it's the mental exercise of debating an idea, and nothing is sacred. More consensus-oriented personality types rarely appreciate the vigor with which I tear down their beliefs and methods, leading to a great deal of tension.

FLAWS

In the shadowed woods of my homeland, I emerged as a hunter with a mind as quick as my reflexes. Born into a life entwined with the rhythms of nature, I found solace and purpose in the dance between predator and prey. However, that harmony was shattered when marauding Orcs and Goblins descended upon our tranquil home, leaving nothing but devastation in their wake.

Fuelled by a burning desire for vengeance, I pledged to bring down terrible wrath upon those who obliterated my homeland. Orcs and Goblins became my favored enemies, and my existence became a relentless pursuit to hunt and eliminate any that crossed my path.

As a trapper, I ventured into strange realms, encountering the unknown and witnessing sights that linger in the realm of the unfathomable. Armed with two rapiers, one in each hand, I became a swift and deadly force against those who sought to disrupt the delicate balance of the natural world.

My mind, a labyrinth of quick thoughts and innovative ideas, became a powerful asset in both the art of combat and the strategizing of survival. I am an excellent brainstormer, dissecting problems from every conceivable angle, discarding the ineffective and presenting a plethora of possibilities. Breaking the rules of conformity, I relish questioning prevailing norms and finding value in the underdogs and outliers. My mental prowess challenges the status quo and redirects the flow of thought into clever and unexplored directions.

The fervor with which I engage in debate is matched only by my ability to recall intricate details of maps and terrain. I can effortlessly navigate the landscapes, finding food and water for myself and my companions with an uncanny knowledge of the land's offerings.

CHARACTER BACKSTORY

Malar

Alignment: Chaotic Evil
Alternate Names: The Beastlord, The Black-Blooded One
Category: None
Domains: Nature
Pantheon: Faerûnian
Symbol: Clawed paw

Malar epitomizes the dark side of nature, the world that is red in tooth and claw. His faithful believe the hunt is the center point between life and death - the facing off of hunter and prey, forcing the issue of who lives and who dies. People believe that Malar can't be propitiated and knows no mercy, so he receives prayers only from those engaging in a hunt. Such supplicants pray to Malar for two reasons: to beg the aid of his peerless skill as a hunter, or to adopt his fearsome mantle and thus ward off other predators. Malar is the god of those who delight in the hunt, don't shy from bloodshed, and savor the fear of their prey.

Many lycanthropes consider Malar to be their divine father, as do some other intelligent predators. He has many devotees who are druids and rangers of particularly savage inclination, and many barbarians take Malar as a patron for his ferocity and cruelty. His priests use claw bracers, impressive gauntlets bedecked with stylized claws that jut out from the ends of the fists, as ceremonial weapons.
