CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Supportive – Defenders truly enjoy helping others, and they happily share their knowledge, attention, and expertise with anyone who needs it. People with this personality type strive for win-win situations,

PERSONALITY TRAITS

IDEALS

The common folk must see me as a hero of the people.

BONDS

Overly Humble – Defenders are so concerned with other people's feelings that they may refuse to make their thoughts known or to take any duly earned credit for their contributions. And they often downplay their efforts entirely when they think that they could have done some minor aspect of a task better.

FLAWS

I was born into velvet halls and silver spoons, a child of privilege in a kingdom where justice bent to gold. From the outside, I was a loyal noble—dutiful, obedient, reliable. But inside, I watched the weight of taxes crush the backs of kindhearted farmers and weary craftsmen. The lord grew fat on their hunger, and I could no longer smile at his feasts without tasting bile.

So I acted.

By day, I defended the kingdom's laws. By night, I broke them—stealing grain, coin, medicine. I slipped through the woods with my drake companion, delivering hope beneath moonlight while cloaked in anonymity. I was a ghost in silk, never asking for thanks, never leaving a name. Loyalty to the people meant more than loyalty to a crown.

I never sought glory. I barely accepted praise when it came. I could've done more. I should've done it better.

When my mask slipped and the court learned the truth, I fled with nothing but my bow, my bondmate, and a heart heavy with exile. The common folk still whisper of me—a traitor to the throne, a hero to the people. I just did what needed doing.

Now I walk the wilds, offering my skill to those in need. I still believe in loyalty, in kindness, in leaving no one behind. My title is gone, but my purpose endures. And if ever someone calls on me for help, I will answer—without hesitation, and without need for thanks.
