FLAWS

I am a creature of both song and spirit, a green dragonborn bard with a deep, restless curiosity. My heart beats in sync with the melodies I create, and it is through music, art, and the stories I weave that I seek to make sense of the world. But my true passion, my burning obsession, lies in the ancient history of our world—the legendary conflict that raged for a thousand years between dragons and giants.

Ever since I was young, the songs of old enchanted me. The great sagas of our people, those ancient ballads that tell the tales of our ancestors, have always felt like the pulse of the earth itself. But it's the Song of Creation, the lost melody that chronicles the eternal clash between dragonkind and the giants, that haunts my dreams. How such a war could go on for so long, with the might of dragons clashing against the brute force of the giants, is beyond me. The flames of fury that must have scorched the skies and the thunderous steps of titans that shook the very mountains—they are stories I crave to understand, to experience, to feel.

My curiosity has driven me to seek out every scrap of information, every fragment of a ballad or verse, that might shed light on this ancient war. I've wandered across deserts, scaled craggy peaks, and sought out the massive stone monolith ruins of the giants—anywhere there might be a clue that could piece together the larger picture. Yet, with each discovery, I find myself drawn deeper into the mystery. The truth, I know, lies hidden in the threads of creation itself. And I intend to write my own epic, a ballad worthy of the Saga of the Dragon Queller, one that will be sung for generations to come.

As I travel, I try to live in a world where me, and everyone else, have the freedom to live as we see fit, without judgment. But I've found that to truly create, I must have the freedom to think and act without the constraints of tradition. It's why I never
