CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Receptive – Protagonists have strong opinions, but they're far from closed-minded. They recognize the importance of allowing others to express themselves fully. Even when Protagonists don't agree with

PERSONALITY TRAITS

IDEALS

I collect books for my religious university

BONDS

Condescending – People with this personality type enjoy teaching others, particularly about the causes and beliefs that matter so much to them. But, at times, Protagonists' attempts to "enlighten" others may come across as patronizing – not the most effective strategy for persuading other people, unfortunately.

FLAWS

They say knowledge is power—but they forget how easily it burns. I watched the flames devour the greatest library in all the lands, a cathedral of parchment and ink reduced to smoldering ruin. I was its curator, its defender in name—until that day, when steel and fire spoke louder than wisdom. I survived. The books did not.

I wear armor now, not out of vanity or tradition, but because I've lived the cost of being unprepared. If I had stood in steel that day—if I had wielded a shield instead of just words—I might have turned the invaders away. I might have saved even a single shelf. I might have made a difference.

Since then, I have dedicated myself not only to recovering lost knowledge, but to defending those who seek to protect it. I walk the world as a cleric of the Knowledge Domain, a scholar with a sword-arm, a teacher with a warrior's heart. Temples, archives, wandering historians—I shield them all. The light of truth is fragile. I will not let it be snuffed out again.

I still speak, still guide, still listen. But when words fail, I stand ready. Some call me patronizing when I correct their ignorance, but I speak because I care. I know what's at stake. Every mind I awaken, every book I reclaim—it's another stone in the foundation of something better.

I do not seek vengeance. I seek restoration. Page by page. Soul by soul. Sword by sword. I carry the memory of that fire with me, etched into steel and prayer alike. And I swear this—so long as I draw breath, no more knowledge will burn on my watch.
