CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

DIRECT – This perceptive skill isn't used for mind games – I prefer to communicate clearly, with direct and factual questions and answers. Things are what they are.

PERCEPTIVE – This originality is helped by my ability to notice when things change – and when they need to change! Small shifts in habits and appearances stick out to me, and I use these observations to help create connections with others.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

THE PATH LESS TRAVELED - With perhaps the most perceptive, unfiltered view of anyone, I have a unique skill in noticing small changes. Whether a shift in facial expression, a new clothing style, or a broken habit, I pick up on hidden thoughts and motives where most would be lucky to pick up anything specific at all. I use these observations immediately, calling out the change and asking questions, often with little regard for sensitivity.

IDEALS

I use my cunning mind to solve mysteries and find justice for those who've been wronged.

BONDS

DEFIANT – I won't be boxed in. Repetition, hardline rules, sitting quietly while I am lectured at – this isn't how I live my life. I am action-oriented and hands-on. Environments like school and much entry-level work can be so tedious that they're intolerable, requiring extraordinary effort from me to stay focused long enough to get to freer positions.

FLAWS

In the shadows of bustling cities and amidst the intrigues of the feywild, my penchant for solving mysteries has carved a unique path for me as a private investigator. With a direct and perceptive mind that left no room for mind games, I embraced the chaos of my surroundings, using my cunning intellect to weave through the intricacies of the world.

My journey into the realm of investigations began when a close friend was wrongfully accused of murder. Unwilling to accept the injustice, I delved into the mysteries hidden in the "Mere of Dead Men," using my disguise and lock picking skills to navigate the hidden corners where secrets festered. My path less traveled often led me into the midst of dangerous situations, but my deft skills and ability to notice subtle shifts allowed me to emerge unscathed.

With relentless determination, I uncovered the truth, tracked down the actual killer, an undead spirit from Thornhold, and proved my friend's innocence. The success of this endeavor ignited a passion within me for seeking justice, and I officially began my career as a private investigator. However, in order to succeed I had to make a pact with an Archyfey to unlock access to tools I needed. My methods were far from conventional; I preferred action over lectures and hands-on experience over sitting quietly.

My perceptive nature, combined with a talent for noticing small changes, made me a force to be reckoned with in the investigative world. I had a knack for gaining access to people and places, often using fast-talking, determination, and official-looking documentation to get the information I needed. Local law enforcement viewed me as either a nuisance or one of their own, depending on the circumstances, but none could deny my efficacy in uncovering the truth.

My lightfoot halfling luck seemed to follow me like

CHARACTER BACKSTORY

Tyr

Alignment: Lawful Good
Alternate Names:€Grimjaws, The Maimed God, The Evenhanded
Category: None
Domains: Order, War
Pantheon: Faerûnian
Symbol: Balanced scales resting on a warhammer

Tyr Grimjaws, Tyr the Evenhanded, Wounded Tyr, the Maimed God, the Blind, Blind Tyr, the Lord of Justice - all of these names speak to the nature of the Faerûnian god of justice. Tyr appears as a noble warrior missing his right hand, which he lost to Kezef the Chaos Hound in an act of bravery and sacrifice, and with his eyes wrapped in cloth to signify his blindness, caused by a wound dealt to him by Ao when he questioned the justice of the Overgod's actions.

Tyr's followers devote themselves to the cause of justice, to the righting of wrongs and the deliverance of vengeance. This devotion isn't necessarily concerned with equality or fairness, but rather the discovery of truth and the punishment of the guilty. Those who favor Tyr tend to be stiff-necked about matters of theology and laws, seeing things in terms of black and white. Tyr's credo of lawfulness and honesty is a demanding one, and his priests remind the faithful not to hold in contempt others who can't live by it - it wouldn't be an honorable calling if everyone could muster the strength of will to follow it.

Many orders of knighthood are devoted to Tyr, including the Knights of Holy Judgment and the Knights of the Merciful Sword. Such knights-as well as judges and priests, clerics, and paladins who worship Tyr - sometimes wear thin strips of diaphanous cloth over their eyes to remind others of the blindness of justice.
