CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

GREAT IN A CRISIS – With all this hands-on creativity and spontaneity, it's no wonder that I am a natural in crisis situations. I usually enjoy a little physical risk, and I am not afraid to get my hands dirty when the situation calls for it.

KNOWS HOW TO PRIORITIZE – This flexibility comes with some unpredictability, but I am able to store my spontaneity for a rainy day, releasing my energy just when it's needed most.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

DEFYING THE RULES - I have a particular difficulty in predicting emotions, but this is just a natural extension of my fairness, given how difficult it is to gauge my emotions and motivations. However, my tendency to explore my relationships through my actions rather than through empathy can lead to some very frustrating situations. I struggle with boundaries and guidelines, preferring the freedom to move about and color outside the lines if I need to.

IDEALS

I will bring terrible wrath down on the evildoers who destroyed my homeland.

BONDS

PRIVATE AND RESERVED – I am notoriously difficult to get to know. I am a true introvert, keeping my personal matters to myself, and often just prefer silence to small talk.

FLAWS

In the shadowed depths of the dense forests, where silence and solitude were my only companions, I emerged from the ashes of a destroyed homeland. I was a master of the longbow and an expert sharpshooter, my heart fueled by the terrible wrath I harbored against the Green Dragon that laid waste to my people.

Raised as an outlander, my life was defined by my natural prowess in crisis situations. My hands-on creativity and spontaneity made me an indispensable figure among my people, and I reveled in the physical risks that often accompanied my role as a hunter-gatherer. With a unique ability to prioritize tasks even in the most unpredictable circumstances, I became a beacon of resilience in the face of adversity.

My homeland was ravaged by dragons, and my heart burned with a desire for vengeance. Dragons became my favored enemy, and I honed my skills as a monster slayer Ranger, specializing in bringing down these mighty creatures. I carried a dragon tooth as a memento, a passed-down relic from my family that fueled my determination to wreak havoc on the evildoers who had destroyed everything I held dear.

Despite my private and reserved nature, my actions spoke louder than words. I struggled with expressing emotions and understanding others on an empathetic level, often preferring silence to small talk. Defying rules and boundaries, I embraced the freedom to move about and color outside the lines, navigating the complexities of relationships through my actions rather than through empathy.

A natural explorer of the forest, I journeyed through strange places, witnessing things that others could not fathom. My excellent memory for maps and geography, coupled with my ability to find food and fresh water, made me a skilled survivor in the wilderness. The lands I traversed

CHARACTER BACKSTORY

Malar

Alignment: Chaotic Evil
Alternate Names: The Beastlord, The Black-Blooded One
Category: None
Domains: Nature
Pantheon: Faerûnian
Symbol: Clawed paw

Malar epitomizes the dark side of nature, the world that is red in tooth and claw. His faithful believe the hunt is the center point between life and death - the facing off of hunter and prey, forcing the issue of who lives and who dies. People believe that Malar can't be propitiated and knows no mercy, so he receives prayers only from those engaging in a hunt. Such supplicants pray to Malar for two reasons: to beg the aid of his peerless skill as a hunter, or to adopt his fearsome mantle and thus ward off other predators. Malar is the god of those who delight in the hunt, don't shy from bloodshed, and savor the fear of their prey.

Many lycanthropes consider Malar to be their divine father, as do some other intelligent predators. He has many devotees who are druids and rangers of particularly savage inclination, and many barbarians take Malar as a patron for his ferocity and cruelty. His priests use claw bracers, impressive gauntlets bedecked with stylized claws that jut out from the ends of the fists, as ceremonial weapons.
